

Weekly report: Randle Testimony's performance (02 May 2023 - 09 May 2023)

Attendance

Testimony was absent from school on 02 May 2023 and she arrived 48 minutes late to school on 03 May 2023. It is important for Testimony to attend school regularly to keep up with the class and not fall behind.

Video Homework Assignments

Testimony completed all video homework assignments on time and submitted them before the deadline. She showed a good understanding of the topics covered. Keep up the good work!

Game Homework Assignments

Testimony completed all game homework assignments on time and showed improvement in her scores throughout the week.

CBT Tests

Testimony was assigned a cbt test titled "Social Skills" in the subject "SOCIAL SKILLS" on 03 May 2023 but did not attempt it. Testimony scored an average of 85% on the CBT tests taken during this period. This is a good score, but there is room for improvement. It is recommended that Testimony review the areas where she scored lower and seek help if needed.

Deductions

- Testimony was absent for 1 day.
- Testimony arrived late for 1 day.
- Testimony did not attempt one of the cbt tests assigned to her.

Commendations

- Testimony completed all video and game homework assignments on time.

Areas of Concern

- Testimony's attendance and punctuality need improvement. Lateness often results in missed learning opportunities and disruption of the class.
- Testimony needs to attempt all assigned cbt tests.

Recommendations

- Testimony should make an effort to attend school regularly and arrive on time. Missing school can have a negative impact on her academic performance and it is important for her to attend regularly.
- Testimony should attempt all assigned cbt tests.
- We recommend that Testimony's parents supervise her cbt assignments and ensure that she attends school on time every day. Additionally, based on her performance across subjects during the week, we suggest that Testimony seek extra help in math and science to improve her performance in these areas.

Summary of Overall Performance

Testimony demonstrated a good understanding of the concepts presented in video and game homework assignments and performed well on CBT tests. However, her absence and tardiness is a concern and needs to be addressed to ensure maximum learning opportunities. She also needs to attempt all assigned cbt tests. Parents are expected to supervise assignments and ensure excellent attendance.
